

RWDCA JUNIOR SHOW RULES

(UPDATED 2010)

1. The Junior Red & White Show will be held at the same time as the open show. Juniors will be recognized, placed and presented awards by stepping forward in their respective open show class.
2. Exhibitors may participate after they reach nine years of age and until December 31 of the year in which he or she turns 21 years of age.
3. All animals must be true RED in color and must be registered in the Red & White Dairy Association. All animals must be owned by or leased to juniors by July 1st of current year. Registry and/or transfer and/or lease papers must be received by RWDCA office by July 15th of current year. With the exception of animals purchased by, transferred to or leased to a junior at the RWDCA Convention Sale.
4. Two or more juniors may own an animal. One junior must be on the halter to receive junior recognition. The animal must stay in the same partnership throughout the show season. Awards will be presented as one unit, to all owners equally.
5. Entries must be shown by the junior owner in all cases, except by prior written approval. A written statement must be hand delivered to the Red & White Show Superintendent by 5 p.m. the day before the show for the final approval by the RWDCA. Included in statement - Name and age of owner, cell phone number of a contact person, class of animal, name and age of alternate leadsperson, and reason owner needs an alternate leadsperson. If approved, the alternate must be the same age or younger than the Junior owner. Alternates must also be a RWDCA Junior member. Adults are not allowed to show, in any case.
*With guidance from the Board of Directors, we still must be strict on reasons for substitutions.
-Person is on the fairgrounds and/or event and is physically impossible to be at the halter of the animal.
-The junior has two animals in the class.
6. Dress code will be strictly enforced for juniors. White pants with an official show shirt must be worn or the junior will not be allowed to show (World Dairy Expo-Madison, WI & Premier National Junior Show-Harrisburg, PA).
7. Junior show classes consist of all female classes except Best Uddered of Show. There will be no junior show classes for bulls or group classes except Junior State Herd.
8. Bred & Owned: To be eligible for junior bred & owned, the name(s) listed as the breeder and owner on the Red & White Registration Certificate must be the same. Adult-Junior partnerships are not acceptable. Partnerships must be both Junior members and both must be listed as breeder and owner on the registration paper.
