

RWDCA JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP AGREEMENT
(UPDATED 2015)

The Junior Red and White Dairy Cattle Association is open to membership for those persons under the age of 21 as of January 1st of the membership year. Proof of age must accompany the application along with the proper fee. If a parent or guardian is a member of the association, their name should also be given. The fee for junior membership is $25 which includes a one year subscription to The Red Bloodlines. The purpose of this organization is to encourage youthful interest in the promotion of the Red and White Dairy Cattle industry. To be eligible for membership, all applicants must agree to abide by the rules hereinafter set forth. Failure to honor any of these rules will subject the junior member to immediate revocation of membership status. This includes the opportunity of participation in Association sponsored activities and events, to include the Junior All-American Red and White contest.

The following rules shall apply to all Junior RWDCA members:

1. Use or possession of any alcoholic beverage or controlled substance strictly prohibited.
2. No member shall engage in any behavior prohibited by state statute, local ordinance or Board policy (which shall include, but is not limited to vandalism, theft, truancy, assault, threats to personal safety or property and flagrant misconduct.)
3. Members, at all times, shall demonstrate good citizenship and recognize the value of setting and adhering to the highest standards of conduct and performance.
4. At all Association sponsored functions, activities and trips, the rules of conduct apply to all junior members.
5. Members and/or their parent/guardian shall accept any financial responsibility for the enforcement of the provisions herein.
6. Junior membership does not entitle the Junior member to voting privileges.
7. After a Junior member's eligibility has expired, he/she may become a regular member of the association by paying the proper fee.
